The Bristol Public Library (BPL) invites exhibitors, educators, artists and artist-based groups to apply to exhibit works of art and displays of interest, information, and enlightenment to the community as part of our “Expanding Minds, Building Communities” mission.

The Space
The Bristol Public Library is a high traffic community facility serving a broad range of users. Youth, families, and area visitors utilize the Library for special events, workshops, meetings, traditional library functions, and social interaction. The Virgie R. Fleenor Art Gallery is a space for the purpose of displaying worked relevant to the Southwestern Virginia and Northeastern Tennessee region. Individuals and groups are welcomed to display their works, pending approval of the Gallery Committee. The Gallery, located on the upper level of the BPL, offers approximately 9 feet by 63 feet of wall space with adjustable track lighting. There are twenty movable chains, each with two hooks, on a track from which works may be hung. Exhibitors are asked to view the space before hanging their exhibit if at all possible. The Gallery is managed by BPL staff that will assist the exhibitors to the best of their time and resources.

Submissions
The BPL invites submissions from individual exhibitors or artists, groups, and independent curators working in various media to submit proposals for exhibitions. Your proposal should include:

- A cover sheet which includes the name and contact information (email and phone number also) for the exhibitor. In case of group exhibits, there must be one person designated to submit the proposal and act as the contact person to the Library staff.
